VELOX with strong partners at DKT 2018

Hamburg, 5th June 2018.

VELOX GmbH, one of Europe's leading solutions providers of raw material specialities for the plastics, composites, additives, rubber and paints & coatings industries, will be showcasing its comprehensive rubber and rubber additives portfolio at the German Rubber Conference DKT, taking place in Nuremberg from 2nd until 5th July. In Hall 12, booth 338 VELOX' long-standing partners Avanzare, Axalta Polymer Powders and Nitriflex, as well as the company's new partner Himadri from India, a carbon black specialist, will co-exhibit.

"VELOX is well established in the rubber and additive industry with a wide product portfolio for 25 years", says Robert Zeppelin, Business Unit Manager CASE (Coatings, Adhesives, Sealants and Elastomers) at VELOX. "We are pleased to be represented again this year together with strong partners and a broad range of specialties."

Furthermore, Avanzare will present novel additives on the subject of "Thermal and Electrical Conductive Materials to Avoid H&S problems " at the daily Poster Sessions.

This year, VELOX is celebrating its 25th anniversary. The Group is operating 21 offices across Europe as well as in China, Russia and Turkey.

The logo for DKT 2018 features the letters "DKT" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The letter "O" is replaced by a red circle with a yellow center. The year "2018" is in a bold, black, sans-serif font.
